I believe this is my grandmother writing in this title. It is not my mother except for a couple of places.
 I remember seeing a scrap book
 but as I remember it as birthday, Christmas cards and a few articles of Berlin. I have no idea when it went.

March 23, 1878

Albert Arthur Huntsinger Jr. is born in Berlin, Green Lake, Wisconsin

JDM Research Notes:

Because the location of "Sacramento" seems to be flexible, by either the official boundaries, or used as a neighborhood description, it is formally recognized as Sections 35 and 36, but as a neighborhood, it also contains Sections 1 and 2. It also appears that the same areas, were also considered part of Berlin Township.

Albert and Susan Huntsinger probably lived in Section 1, indicated by the green boarder from 1866 to about 1871 – 1874, then moved into the city of Berlin, on Water Street, until about 1879, then moved back to the area of Section 1 of Berlin Township, indicated by the green boarder, until the winter of 1905/1906. The constant in the census of 1870, 1880, 1895, 1900, and 1905, is that Albert Huntsinger and his family resided next to, or within a few properties of the Willard farm, indicated by the yellow boarder.

The property with a blue boarder was also owned by Albert and Susan Huntsinger, and was sold in 1905. The comment of the current owner is that this property is mostly a marsh / wetland area. It is unknown when this property was purchased, or if anyone ever resided there,

Family lore states that Elmer Huntsinger ran away from home. The first time, his brother "Bert", brought Elmer back home. Elmer then ran away a second time, this time much further, and began using the alias "John Hunt", to avoid being found by his family. (verbal history by Eunice (Hunt) Coates)
