

Mable Leota Moore

Mable Leota Moore was born May 20, 1914 on a farm east of Dolliver, Iowa. She was two years of age when her parents, William and Flora Mitchell Moore moved the family to Armstrong. Her mother died in 1929 and she kept house for her father and attended school, graduating in 1931. That fall, they broke up the household and Mable made her home with her sister and husband, Bea and Ole Goodge. She married Kenneth Huntsinger on January 28, 1934. They lived all their married years in Estherville. Kenneth died December 24, 1992. Mable lives in the family home in Estherville. They had two sons, James and Barry; one grandson, James Jr.; three granddaughters Carmen, Heidi, and Brenda; and three great grandchildren Alicia, Aaron, and Elizabeth Davis.

Kenneth worked five years in a grocery store owned by Grace and Clyde Sanborn, five years in a grocery store for Kathyne and William Sidles, and then 26 years as a bakery route salesman.
